RE: Regional Housing Needs Allocation - San Mateo County Subregion Final Allocation

Dear Mr. Rapport:

I am pleased to submit to you the “Final Regional Housing Needs Allocation for the San Mateo Subregion and Finding of Consistency with the Sustainable Communities Strategy for the San Francisco Bay Region”. Said document was adopted as Resolution 13-01 by the San Mateo County Housing Needs Allocation Subregion Policy Advisory Committee (PAC) on April 11, 2013.

Pursuant to Government Code Sections 65584-65584.05, the 20 cities of San Mateo County and the County of San Mateo have become a member of a countywide “Subregion,” an ad hoc joint powers authority formed specifically to locally administer ABAG’s Regional Housing Needs Allocation process (RHNA). A Policy Advisory Committee (PAC) comprising of one representative from each of the 21 jurisdictions is the governing board of the Subregion. The Subregion was approved by ABAG on March 2011. The City/County Association of Governments (C/CAG) has been selected to represent the Subregion.

The Final Methodology for Determining Housing Needs Shares was submitted to ABAG on July 26, 2012. In accordance with this Methodology, a proposed Draft Allocation of Housing Shares for the jurisdictions in the San Mateo County Subregion was developed. The proposed draft allocation was reviewed by the Subregion’s Technical Advisory Committee (TAC) on 8/9/12 and 9/6/12 and by the PAC on 9/20/12. On September 20, 2012 the PAC unanimously approved the proposal with minor change, hence it was formally adopted as the Draft Allocation.

On May 17, 2012, the Association of Bay Area Governments (ABAG) and the Metropolitan Transportation Commission (MTC) jointly adopted the Sustainable Community Strategy (SCS) Preferred Scenario, “Job-Housing Connection”. In July 2012 ABAG released the Draft Allocation setting the regional housing need allocation (RHNA) for the San Mateo County Sub-Region at 16,418 units. Following its Allocation Methodology, and in conformance with housing element law, the Subregion unanimously adopted a Draft Allocation on September 20, 2012. The Sub-Region immediately opened a period for public comment and revision requests that ran through October 12, 2012. Through an iterative dialogue process facilitated by the Subregion administrative staff, various member jurisdictions of the Subregion requested revisions to the Draft Allocation. All such revisions were incorporated into the Proposed Final Allocation.

On November 29, 2012, the Subregion adopted the Proposed Final Regional Housing Needs Allocation for the San Mateo County Subregion and opened a sixty-day appeal that ran through January 30, 2013 during which member jurisdictions may appeal. No appeal was submitted to the Subregion during the appeal period.

At the January 31, 2013 PAC meeting, a public hearing was conducted for the closure of appeal process on the Proposed Final Regional Housing Needs Allocation for the San Mateo County Sub-Region.

Each of the twenty-one jurisdictions comprising the Subregion has adopted a governing board resolution recognizing the participation in the San Mateo County Subregion for the Regional Housing Needs Allocation process and acceptance of the allocation assigned by the Subregion.

The San Mateo County Subregion has been a success again. San Mateo County truly appreciates all of the support and guidance that ABAG provided. San Mateo County found this opportunity to work collaboratively with ABAG helped to achieve the goal in our County to create a forum for dialogue among local jurisdictions to distribute the housing allocation to meet the county's needs. We look forward to working with ABAG on future opportunities.

Sincerely,

Sandy Wong
C/CAG Executive Director

RESOLVED, by the Governing Board of the San Mateo County Regional Housing Needs Allocation Subregion, that

WHEREAS, the San Mateo County Regional Housing Needs Allocation Subregion (“Subregion”) was formed pursuant to Cal. Gov. Code § 65584.03(a) and approved by the Association of Bay Area Governments (“ABAG”); and

WHEREAS, the Subregion was allocated its share of Regional Housing Needs by ABAG; and

WHEREAS, on July 26, 2012 the Subregion adopted a Final Methodology specifying the method by which the Subregion would allocate housing among its members; and

WHEREAS, on September 20, 2012 the Subregion proposed a Draft Allocation of Housing Needs within the Subregion and immediately opened a public comment period running from September 20, 2012 through October 12, 2012, during which any member jurisdiction of the Subregion and any members of the public could request revisions to the Draft Allocation; and

WHEREAS, through an iterative dialogue process facilitated by the Subregion administrative staff, various member jurisdictions of the Subregion requested revisions to the Draft Allocation pursuant to Cal. Gov. Code §65584.05(b), and the Subregion responded to such requests pursuant to Cal. Gov. Code § 65584.05(c) and all such revisions were incorporated into the Proposed Final Allocation; and

WHEREAS, no other requests for revisions were submitted to the Subregion; and

WHEREAS, the Proposed Final Allocation was discussed in full, and public comment was heard in full at a duly noticed public hearing conducted by the governing board of the Subregion on November 29, 2012, and the governing board immediately opened an appeal period running from November 29, 2012 through January 30, 2013 during which any member jurisdiction of the Subregion could appeal its Proposed Final Allocation; and

WHEREAS, no member jurisdiction submitted an appeal during the appeal period; and

WHEREAS, the Subregion has gained all necessary approvals required by Cal Gov. Code § 65584 et seq from ABAG; and

WHEREAS, the Subregion has considered and met the policy objectives outlined in Cal. Gov. Code § 65584(d) in formulating its Final Methodology for allocating housing units, and in determining the allocations to the Subregion, and has found that the Final Methodology and the Final Allocations meet the letter and spirit of Cal Gov. Code § 65584 et seq; and

WHEREAS, the Subregional Final Allocation incorporates the land use pattern

identified in the draft Preferred Scenario of the Sustainable Communities Strategy (entitled the Jobs-Housing Connection Strategy) adopted by ABAG and MTC on May 17, 2012; and

WHEREAS, the Subregional Final Allocation allocates by jurisdiction and the Jobs-Housing Connection Strategy development pattern envisions growth at a sub-jurisdictional level based on locally-identified areas for growth (known as Priority Development Areas (PDAs)), there is a reasonable expectation a jurisdiction with adopted PDAs will plan for a significant portion of its Final Allocation in the PDAs; and

WHEREAS, the Final Allocation was determined in accordance with the Final Methodology adopted by the Subregion, and members of the Subregion have had opportunity to comment, and request revisions, and appeal, and no members have appealed the Proposed Final Allocations; and

WHEREAS, there has been presented to this Governing Board of the Subregion for its consideration and acceptance the Final Allocation for the San Mateo County Subregion, reference to which is hereby made for further particulars, and the Governing Board has examined and approved the same as to form and content;

A. The Regional Housing Needs Allocation (RHNA) process establishes targets for housing production in the Housing Element for the 2014-2022 planning period. Pursuant to Government Code Sections 65584-65584.05, the Association of Bay Area Governments (ABAG) is required to administer the RHNA process for the Bay Area. State law allows cities within counties to join together to form a sub-region, a consortium that would administer the State mandated RHNA process at the local level

B. Pursuant to Resolution No. 11-14, the City Council authorized participation in the sub-region and designating the City/County Association of San Mateo County (C/CAG) as the official representative of the San Mateo County sub-region.

C. Policy Advisory and Technical Advisory Committees were formed and have been meeting since March 2011 to develop the methodology and proposed RHNA. In accordance with this Methodology, a proposed Draft Allocation of Housing Shares for the jurisdictions in the San Mateo County sub-region was developed. On September 20, 2012, the Policy Advisory Committee unanimously approved the proposal with minor changes that are reflected in the version dated November 19, 2012.

D. Staff recommends that the City Council approve the proposed Daly City Regional Housing Needs Allocation, 2014-2022 Planning Period shown below:

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the City Council of the City of Daly City that it hereby approves acknowledging participation in the San Mateo County Sub-region for the Regional Housing Needs Allocation (RHNA) Process and acceptance of the proposed targets for housing production in the Housing Element for the 2014-2022 planning period.
